SONGWRITER

Ever since I was a little kid, I've had a strong connection to music. I wrote my first song when I was 14 years old and several other throughout high school. None of which were particularly good. My senior year, I wrote a song called "I'll Convince You" for my girlfriend at the time. It was this song that started to get me some recognition as a songwriter.

BROADWAY

The first musical theater experience I ever had was watching Donnie Osmond starring as Joseph in "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" on DVD. It was because of that instance, as well as seeing shows in New York and on West End, that I gained a love and respect for Broadway.

I started performing in high school with my first production being footloose. I later was able to perform the role I had admired as a child when I was cast as Joseph. My favorite role I have portrayed would have to be Melchior Gabor in "Spring Awakening".

I have recently been cast as Gabe in "Next to Normal" at the Playhouse, and I am very much looking forward to that production!
